Description

Sicily is a walker's paradise, with a diverse landscape that ranges from rugged mountains to sandy beaches. This guidebook describes 46 day walks that showcase the best of Sicily's natural beauty.

The walks are divided into three sections:

- Mount Etna: This section describes 12 walks on and around Mount Etna, Sicily's highest mountain. The walks range from easy strolls to challenging ascents of the summit.
- Aeolian Islands: This section describes 18 walks on the Aeolian Islands, a group of seven volcanic islands off the coast of Sicily. The walks range from easy strolls to challenging ascents of the islands' highest peaks.
- Egadi Islands: This section describes 16 walks on the Egadi Islands, a group of three islands off the coast of Sicily. The walks range from easy strolls to challenging ascents of the islands' highest peaks.

Each walk includes detailed descriptions, clear mapping, and stunning photography. The guidebook also includes information on accommodation, transport, and food.
