The body was found on May 1, 1983, by a group of fishermen who were fishing off the coast of Big Pine Key. The fishermen discovered the body floating in the water, and they called the authorities.

When the authorities arrived, they quickly determined that the body had been dismembered. The man's head and hands had been severed from his body, and his legs had been cut off at the knees.

The authorities also found a number of gunshot wounds on the man's body. The wounds were consistent with having been fired from a .22 caliber handgun.

The authorities were unable to identify the man, and they were also unable to determine how he died. The case remains unsolved, and it is one of the most mysterious murders in Florida Keys history.
